

FALSE CONVERTS

The doctrine of justification by faith, a biblical truth, and a blessed relief from sterile legalism and unfulfilling self-effort, has in our time fallen into evil company, and been interpreted by many and in such manner as actually to keep men from the knowledge of God. The whole transaction of religious conversion has been made mechanical and spiritless. Faith may now be exercised without a jar to the moral life and without embarrassing the Adamic ego. Christ may be “received” without creating any special love for Him in the soul of the receiver. The man is “saved” but he is not hungry nor thirsty after God. In fact, he is specifically taught to be satisfied and encouraged to be content with little. For shame. AWT
