

HOW TO BE READY

How to be ready. Always be ready to give an answer to every man that asks you a reason for the hope that is in you. All true Christians, no matter how weak, have grounded their hearts in Scripture for the hope they profess. Just as the saint conquers fear by asking his soul why it is unsettled, the same question can throw the bold sinner from his prancing hopes.

What reason does he find in the whole Bible for him to hold for salvation when he lives in the ignorance of God? Certainly, his soul would be speechless. Perhaps he just blindly hopes that God is too good to send him to hell, but you have no reason to hope for this and I cannot give you one. Tell him about Jesus. Urge him to repent and seek Jesus, while he can.
