

HOW TO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY

Do not ever say that ministers ask you to climb an impossible hill, or attack an unconquerable city. It is Satan, and your own unbelieving heart that tell you this. And as long as you listen to them, you are likely to do what they suggest. But whatever they say, know this: if you miss heaven, the Lord can wash his hands of your blood. Damnation will be laid at your own door.

What God has offered; He is willing to give. But you have voluntarily turned away from eternal life. Your heart will not accept his terms. You will be found guilty of your own damnation. No one loses God except the man who is willing to part with him. You see hell in front of you, and yet seem to be willing to jump into it, ignoring the invitations of Christ by his Spirit and by ministers of the gospel.
