

KEENERS SERVE JOYFULLY

A keener will make himself useful in his local church. He will help wherever he can, and show up faithfully to church services, including prayer services. He will be especially keen to help in anything of an evangelical nature. He will always be ready to give a reason for the hope within him, and to do so with humility and gratitude.

A keener will feed his soul with his Bible as daily as he can manage and will consume other Bible based worthy material also. He will praise and worship God at every opportunity. My Bible says you must do so and cheerfully, so I will. I will humble myself before God, anywhere, anytime. He is worthy. Do you find yourself rejecting any of this Keener idea? Then just call yourself a CINO and look for a place to hide. Oh, that's right. There isn't any place to hide. God is God and he knows everything.
