

PURSUING GOD

Our pursuit of God is successful just because He is forever seeking to manifest Himself to us. The revelation of God to any man is not God coming from a distance to pay a brief and momentous visit to the man's soul. A man may say "I feel that my son is coming nearer to me as he gets older" and yet that son has lived by his father's side since he was born and has never been away from home more than a day during his entire life. He means that the boy is coming to know him more intimately and with deeper understanding, that the barriers of thought and feeling between the two are disappearing. That father and son are becoming more closely united in mind and heart. The will of God is the same for all. He has no favorites within his household. All He has ever done for any of His children he will do for all of His children. The difference lies not with God but with us. AWT
