

SEEK HIM ONLY

David's life was a torrent of spiritual desire, and his Psalms ring with the cry of the seeker and the glad shout of the finder. Paul confessed the mainspring of his life to be his burning desire after Christ. "That I may know Him" was the goal of his heart and to this he sacrificed everything. "I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for Whom I have suffered the loss of all things and count them but refuse, that I may win Christ. How tragic it is that in this dark day we have had our seeking done for us by our teachers. Everything is made to center on the initial act of accepting Christ and we are not expected thereafter to crave any further revelation of God to our souls. We have been snared in the coils of a spurious logic which insists that if we have found Him, we need no more seek Him. A deadly danger. AWT
