

WHO TO FELLOWSHIP WITH

Man is made for fellowship. But with whom should you fellowship? With those who have the same hopes which you have! Christian saints are a society distinct from the world. When Peter and John left prison, they immediately went to their Christian friends. Consider where your hope will take you. Do not men look for companions on their way to heaven? Are the wicked going there with you? And if your companion will not walk in the way to heaven, what will you do, walking with him? Will you compromise and walk in his way?

In a word, Christian, your hope points to heaven and the one thing you hope for is to be delivered from all the presence of evil. You ought to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for the coming of the day of God. Every believing soul is the spouse of Christ, and we need to act accordingly, always.
